Published by the TATLER STAFF of the ALTON SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL Alton, Illinois

"BENNY BOOKWORM"

Benny Bookworm 9s

Without the help of Benny Bookworm, the Tatler Staff could not have attained the goals that it has in 1950. Benny was created after searching through many volumes and manuscripts in our school library for a hint of an ideal theme. Through the work of the Art Staff, we have been able to picture the bookworm as an average student of Alton High School and lead him through a full year of school activity. We trust the reader will leave everything in the hands of Benny Bookworm and do nothing but turn the pages.

Board of Education

A Session of the Board

Haskell House is a familiar building to students and teachers of A.I.I.S. since it is from here that many policies affecting our school lives are created. This handsome building houses the administrative offices of the Alton Public Schools.

We feel a debt of gratitude to the public spritted men of Alton who serve as members of the Board of Education. Serving without benefit of financial remuneration they spend many hours during the regular and special meetings in planning and working for the betterment of our school system. Their problems and responsibilities are numerous in managing, with the aid of Mr. Johnson and his administrative staff, one of the biggest businesses in Alton—the operation of the city schools. We are proud of these men of Alton who have been responsible for the development of one of the finest educational systems of the state and who are vigilant constantly in meeting the educational needs of the boys and girls of the school district.

The Johnson Jamily

Jack Dietschy, Tatler photographer, visited the Johnsons one Sunday morning after their run from Sunday School to snap this picture. Standing is James B. Johnson our Superintendent of Public Schools. Seated are Jane, Mrs. Johnson, and Carol.

JAMES B. JOHNSON Superintendent of Alton Public Schools

If the operation of an efficient school system can be traced to the "know how" of one man, Mr. Johnson, our genial Superintendent of Schools, in our opinion, would fill the bill. Having progressed from a class room teacher in the Alton system to its superintendency, Mr. Johnson is well acquainted with its past. Through his well organized administrative staff he keeps informed with matters concerning the present, and, with a progressive board of education standing behind him, he is planning and working steadily for a brilliant future for Alton schools.

In spite of the fact that Mr. Johnson is a busy man with the administration of the entire Alton system, his interest in the welfare of faculty members and students of A.H.S. is outstanding. He is never too busy to give his sound judgment and indefatigable energies to the helping of anyone who seeks his assistance.

RAYMOND READY

Administrative Assistant in Charge of Curriculum

A.B., Indiana University A.M., Indiana University

Supervising the instructional staff and working tirelessly for the improvement and enrichment of the curriculum in the Alton Public Schools are Mr. Ready's principal duties. With the addition of new school buildings and the expanding curriculum Mr. Ready's efficient services will be in even greater demand. His quiet and courteous manner and his fund of good humor have made him popular with both teachers and students alike.

EDWIN LEAMON

Administrative Assistant in Charge of Buildings and Grounds

B.S., University of Illinois M.S., University of Illinois

In his position as principal of Alton Senior High School the previous two years, we had frequent opportunities to meet Mr. Leamon and to become well-acquainted. In his new position this year we see him only occasionally when he comes to the high school in connection with his work. With new buildings under construction, Mr. Leamon is a busy man, but remains a friendly and kindly one to students of A.H.S.

The Pruitts at Home

MACY PRUITT Principal of Alton Senior High School

Although Mr. Pruitt was principal of Roosevelt Junior High School last year, he was no stranger to the teachers and students when he returned to Alton Senior High School last fall as principal. As class room teacher and dean of boys for a number of years Mr. Pruitt is well acquainted with the high school and its operation. As principal Mr. Pruitt has proved equally successful as in his previous positions. His friendly and jovial manner and his considerate assistance in meeting the problem of teachers and students have made him popular with all.

Mr. Jackson is a busy man around A.H.S. In addition to checking absences among the boys and issuing them admits to class, Mr. Jackson finds time to attempt to keep them on the straight and narrow path. He may be seen quite often on the football field or gym since he is also Athletic Director.

LEONA B. TETER

LEONA B. TETER

In her first year as Dean of Girls, Miss Teter has proved her usual efficiency in her new position and has become a reliable friend and counsellor to the girls of A.H.S. In addition to teaching duties, Miss Teter is sponsor of the Girls' Council.

Office Staff

The office staff has charge of the filing system, correspondence, school secounts, stenographic work and numerous other duties. Their day is a full one, but their association with the students and faculty is pleasant even though their responsibilities are many.

Mrs. Mildred Watson, Clerk; Audrey Witty, Registrar; Norma Skipper, Clerk.

Office Assistants

The office assistants are the official errand runners in the building. Each assistant gives one hour of his free time each day to serve in the office. This group is helpful in relieving the pressure that ordinarily would fall upon the office staff, in addition to giving service to the school.

First row: Lotus Bertels, Charlotte Sawyer, Carol Combs, Janice Sherwood, Alice Gissal.

Second row: June Nickell, Barbara Duncan, Ann Wollerman, Marilyn Hendricks.

Student Council

The aim of the Student Council is to develop school spirit and to consider helpful opinions for school development submitted by representatives of the student body. Each classroom may elect one delegate and entrusts this person to present before the council each suggestion brought up in the particular classroom to the selling of hot dogs at the football games to the sponsoring of a large project, such as an electric score board for the gymnasium. Each February a colorful campaign is staged for election of the President and Vice-President to preside over the following school year. Candidates are chosen in a meeting of the Junior Class. The Sec-Treas, is elected by the Council members at the first meeting in September. The group meets weekly, with individual committees gathering more frequently. Mr. DeWitt Thomas is the sponsor.

Second row: Peggy Windsor, Ann Wollerman, Marilyn Hendricks, Marilyn Wandling, Janice Sherwood, Marilyn Andrews.

The Girls' Council is a service organization, made up of twenty one girls who are willing to undertake responsibilities of leadership. Members are suggested by the English teachers and voted on by the majority of the Club. A yearly project is the cleaning of the athletic trophies in the gymnasium. They also serve as ushers at graduation, act as hostesses in the Dean of Girls' office, and serve as guides for new students in the school. Their 1950 project is the renumbering of seats in the auditorium. Miss Leona Teter is sponsor of the Club.

The Cabinet, composed of twenty-live boys of scholastic and citizenship records is a service organization in many respects. Among their duties are the taking of tickets at basketball games and plays, selling concessions at athletic events, operating the PA. system, posting weekly bulletin board in the South entrance and working on various school projects. They have many social events, including an annual steak fry. The two sponsors are Ralph Koerber and Don Lewis.

The Tatler Staff

BOB RUBRIGHT. . Editor-in-Chief DEAN JACOBY. . . . . . Editor

The "Tatler" provides a pictorial record of a year at Alton High. A tradition dating back to 1904, the book is published by members of the senior class. This year the staff has attempted to present only the pictures and articles that represent the main activities of the student body. Also, the staff recognizes the value of a good athletic department and has tried to promote a more vivid interest in sports as well as other extra-curricular activities, such as clubs, and plays.

Each staff member was selected for a position according to the place where his particular talent best fitted.

The "Tatler" organization works on a non-profit basis and obtains its revenue through the sale of senior name cards, "Tatler" sales, student pictures, and advertising from our business and professional friends.

Planning the Dummy: Bob Rubright, Editor-in-Chief: Mr. Don Lewis, Sponsor: Dean Jacoby, Editor.

The Hi-Times is a bi-weekly newspaper published by the Journalism class under the sponsorship of Miss Irma Stith. It features full sports coverage, editorials, feature articles, classroom news, and a personality column. It ranks among the top papers in the district and has a large circulation in Alton High School, as well as an extensive mailing list. Both staffs, one is chosen each semester, have enjoyed their time off sessions held in the cafeteria, which spotlights a large menu along with special student varieties. Each September, delegates are sent to the LS.H.R.A. Conference in Urbana.

The editors proof read galleys as feature writer Midge Thomasson and Miss Stith, sponsor, assist Cartoonist Fred Pestner and Sally Wallace who are busy with make-up.

Business Manager Darlene De-Wanz instructs Kaye Halloran, Edna Varble, and Eddie Hall regarding advertising that is to be solicited for the graduation issue, while sports writers, Bill Skeele, Tom Weidman, Eugene Pope and Jim Bateman discuss the Redbirds possibility of winning the Friday night game.

Associate Editor Rosemary Frye supervises Dorothy Jean Sumner, Pat Beard, Larry Mead, and Harold Brenner with school circulation while, Sports Editor Bill Skeele lends a hand to Martha Watkins and Barbara Hulfstutler, who make up the mailing list to exchange journalists and advertises.

As Ili-Times reporters complete their assignments, the Editors, Rosemary Frye, Jackie Hand, and Louis Lemp, begin editing and rewriting copy which is typed for the Adams Printing Company by Tillie Wickenhauser and senior typist Louise Arsht. The Alton High eleven, under the backfield coaching of Pete Stavros and line coaching of Joe Rollo, was sufficient evidence that football power is again on the upward path. The team's spirit was bolstered by initial victories over McKinley and Central High Schools of St. Louis. East St. Louis and Belleville both succeeded in whitewashing the support of the property of the propert the Birds, while the Kahoks of Collinsville surged in the final quarter the birds, while the Kanoks of Collinsville surged in the mind quarter to defeat the improving Stavrosmen. Traveling to Edwardsville, the Hilltoppers downed the Tigers, 15-7, scoring an upset in conference play. Granite City tied Alton 7-7 in one of the best fought battles of the season. The next weekend, Wood River went home with a 9-6 verdict, having kicked a late-game field goal. The Redbirds topped the season with a 7-6 victory over Western's Red Raiders on Thanksgiving Day.

Cheerleaders

No group of students are more responsible for the Alton High School school spirit than our cheerleaders. They are familiar sights at football and basketball games and often lead the student body in pep meetings or the school song. This year school interest has been much keener than in the past three or four years, because the cheerleaders have been able to put over the necessity of supporting the team. Good cheerleaders determine a good team and better student body.

High hurdlers Dwight Barbary and Joe Gordon, and low hurdlers Bob Busse and Bob Cutforth test their forms in the Alton pit.

Track is our unsung sport. The reason lies in the fact that all our track meets are away from home. A good many students of this school, too, are ignorant of track—they don't realize that watching a good meet is like watching a three-ring circus. In one lane the 100 yard dash is in full operation, with officials stretching the ribbon across the cinders and checking their watches; on the green, the discus thrower whitls around several times before sailing the weight; and, at the broadjump pit, attendants smooth the sand in readiness for the next jumper.

Last year our junior track squad even bettered the feats of its senior counterpart. They won every meet they participated in including the Dupo District meet, pacing twelve other schools, and the Conference Junior Meet, with a margin of 27 points over the second place East St. Louis Flyers. Those feats gave the local sports critics many a premonition as to what results the Alton squads will turn out in 1950.

Escorts: Bob Busse, Dick Pructt, Jim Stromske, Harold Sparks, Jim Bateman, Bill Davis. Flower Girls: Joyce Hoagland, Betsy Scott, Jackie Fones.

The annual crowning of the football queen tops off the season with an array of color and drama. It is all part of an assembly program with the participants paying their respects to her newly elected majesty. The queen of the preceding year also appears to relinquish the royal crown and wish her successor the best of luck in her new reign. Senior football players from the escort, with the captain escorting the queen.

The big moment arrives for Pat Miles, as she receives the royal crown, from Football Captain Harold Sparks, in the annual coronation assembly.

Quill and Scroll Banquet

The Quill and Scroll—Inter-National Honorary Society for High School Journalists, gives two banquets each year. Usually a speaker attends and discusses the latest trends in the literary field. John Dietschy, Talter pholographer, at this particular banquet, showed color slides of the Rockies. As this picture was snapped, the Talter Editor-in-Chief was making an acceptance speech on behalf of the new members. Members expressions vary.

Twice a year the Latin Club stages their induction ceremonics in the cafeteria. Sketches are presented, showing modern day versions of old Roman ways of life. Everything is preceded, however, by a great feast, in which the Latin students show no restraint.

"Caesar" is shown a token of his "subjects" esteem.

Jootball Banquet

Terminating every football season, the Ili-12 Clubs of Alton and Wood River sponsor a banquet for the teams from Alton, Roxana, Western, Bethalto, Wood River, and Marquette. Red Grange, the famed "Galloping Ghost" who performed for the University of Illinois in the twenties was the guest speaker. Robert Burnes. Sports Editor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat introduced the speakers. A most valuable player was chosen from the schools, as was an all star team. Jim Stromske received a tackle's berth and Bill Nicolet was named an all-star guard.

ARCHITECT'S SKETCH OF

September 28, 1949, will be recorded as a memorable date in the history of the 1949-1950 school year. After many conferences between Franklin W. Olin, founder of Olin Industries of East Alton, and Clayton J. Schlosser, president of the board of education and a director of the Olin Foundation, an important announcement was made to the public on the above date. This was to the effect that Mr. Olin, through the Foundation, was the benefactor of a new vocational education school which is to be the third unit of a group of schools, and companion to the Alton Senior High and East Junior High School. It will span the gap between these two buildings north of the bowl now separating the two present structures.

According to Mr. Schlosser, the new building will provide complete vocational facilities for the school district and enable all those who wish to be trained in the vocational education to do so.

"The construction of the new school," said Mr. Olin, "is to be of the finest quality." It is his purpose to give the Alton area a vocational training school that will have no superior in the country among communities of comparable size.

The project is to be a memorial to Franklin W. Olin. In the more than half century since he founded the great industry in East Alton, which in moor recent years has been expanded to much larger size and has wide-spread units in the whole country, Mr. Olin has been impressed by the importance of manual education along with the mental.

NEW VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Mrs. Olin, wife of the donor, has a particular interest in her husband's attitude toward the importance of industrial education. Mrs. Olin has been proud that her uncle had founded at Toledo, Ohio, the first manual training school in the country. She takes a pardonable pride in the fact that her husband in his ripeness of experience is founding the first vocational training school of any size in Alfon.

As a preliminary step toward planning the new building, Superintendent J. B. Johnson and a committee visited outstanding industrial schools in the Middle West and in the East to make a complete study and analysis of their physical plants and facilities of those schools.

Voters of the Alton school district said "Thank you" enthusiastically on Saturday, January 28, when a proposal authorizing the Board of Education to accept the gift was passed by 3127 votes for and only 35 against.

The students in the Alton schools also had an opportunity to express their thanks to Mr. Olin when they signed their names to a communication of gratitude for the gift which will enhance greatly their opportunities for educational advancement.

OUR ADVERTISERS

TO ALTON STUDENTS:

Without the cooperation of the business, industrial, and professional men and women of the Alton area, this 1950 Tatler would not have been possible. Because of increased costs of yearbook production, as in the case of everything else, we have been obliged to count more heavily upon their financial assistance. Without this advertising the subscription price of the Tatler would be almost prohibitive for the average student. Because of Alton's citizens' interest in you and your welfare, and our school in general, they have been generous in taking ads. They have also proved kind and considerate to our solicitors.

Therefore, it behooves us to show these firms and friends the value of their advertising in reciprocal good will. Mention their ad in the Tatler when you patronize them; favor them with your cooperation in every way you can.

AND TO ALTON HIGH FRIENDS:

The 1950 Tatler has served you again in presenting your valuable message to Alton students, alumni of the school, and citizens of the community.

Because each Tatler lives and relives from year to year in one thousand homes in Alton, is seen and enjoyed by several times that number, your name will be seen this year and for many years to come, as a thoughtful reminder of your good will to the school, or a reminder to come in and buy your merchandise, or to employ your services.

What Every Boy and Girl Should Know

Our Nation's Constitution and Bill of Rights guarantee to you and all citizens many precious rights . . . rights that have always been yours. The right of political freedom, religious freedom, economic freedom, and freedom of speech.

The fact that you have always enjoyed the protection that fought and paid for by your forefathers, and more recently by our brave soldiers in World Wars I and II, should not make your freedom less appreciated . . . but it probably does.

Not because of any tendency on your part to be unappreciative, but rather because no one has ever explained its full meaning to you.

Each oncoming generation should learn of our achievements as a free people so that each generation may recognize the value in our productive system.

History reveals our country, in times of war, has been a veritable Paul Revere. We got busy and made it hot for whoever attacked us, but . . . history also reveals that we're sort of a Rip Van Winkle in times of peace.

Words of Wisdom

"You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong."

You cannot help strong men by tearing down big men."
"You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage-payer."

"You cannot further the brother-hood of man by encouraging class

You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich.

"You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you carn."
"You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

We're so busy enjoying our American way of life that we may not always be alert to conduct that lends to deprive us of certain of our inalienable rights. It is here where every high school boy and girl can render a great national service.

Do you know that here in America we have only 1 16th of the world's population but more hovs and girls attend high schools and colleges than in all the rest of the world put together?

Do you know that the people in America have more telephones and automobiles than the people in any other several nations put together?

So, whenever you hear anyone gripe, show them that nowhere else in the world is there an economic or political system that produces such material and spiritual benefits for the greatest number.

LLOYD SMITH

e story of Lloyd Smith, a respected citfrom Owens-Illinois Glass Company ear.

ids like a saga from Horatio Alger's pen e up from the bottom and made good a preview of your future life.

ars ago, Lloyd Smith trudged into the rik of a foreman in the Wood Box Desix in the days before an Employment as around the plant. He got the job at the intended to stay a short while, but also the weeks became months, and the liked the company he worked for and he herefore the company liked him.

his hard work, sincerity and ability, he intil he became head of one of the plant's He applied himself diligently to the work at hand—he helped make many improvements which in turn helped make Owens-Illinois a more secure company and the leader in the glass industry. This same security of Owens-Illinois makes possible the security of the job earners in numerous homes of the Alton area. Thus, by helping build the company for which he worked, Lloyd Smith also built his own security—the security which helped him raise a fine family of four children, see that they were educated and which now makes possible a comfortable retirement.

You who are graduating are just starting out in life. By completing your school work you have earned one portion of your life's security. Any security, whether for an individual, corporation or group of people must be earned by their own efforts. In years to come, whether you are successful or not—whether you have the personal security you desire, will be dependent upon whether you apply yourself as Lloyd Smith did.

Editor's Page

The Tatler Staff could not have undertaken the task of producing an annual without the guidance, advice, and patience of the sponsor, Mr. Don Lewis. Mr. Lewis spent two hours and more each day, plus many night sessions in helping the editors and staff plan the make-up of the 1950 yearbook.

Everyone on the Tatler organization had a different assignment and each member whether a typist, sales representative, artist, advertising representative, or writer had to blend his talents to fit the specifications of the yearbook blue-prints.

Tatler production was an introduction into future business, for the staff deals with many business concerns within the year. The Tatler is a big business project for high school students; therefore, each staff member feels he has learned a wide assortment of helpful experiences by the time the books are issued.

We hope you will enjoy the 1950 Tatler, the forty-sixth edition of the oldest Alton High tradition, and cherish it, for there will be no greater satisfaction in your later years, than to take the old green bound edition from your shelves and restore your high school memories.

Bob Rubright
